

About Faith Dialogues at Saint Mark

"Faith seeks understanding" — so said Anselm, Saint, Archbishop, and Theologian. Faith Dialogues at Saint Mark (formerly the Visiting Theologian program) seeks to promote understanding among the faithful, not only within the parish of Saint Mark, but also within the wider church as a gift to the entire Salem community.

Since the early 1970's, Saint Mark has welcomed more than thirty distinguished theologians and scholars into the Congregation's life of worship, learning and service. Teachers of church history, ethics, Bible, culture, art, theology, liturgy and sacramental life have enriched our community's deliberation on what it means to believe in the God of Israel and live accordingly. The ecumenical community, including students at Willamette University, Western Oregon University and Mount Angel Seminary, have participated.

By means of visiting teachers, Saint Mark hopes to encourage lively reflection and faithful action within the Congregation and all faith communities, inviting broad participation in the program for the sake of mutual appreciation, growth in common understanding and service.

Session Descriptions

Can Scripture Stories Be Funny?

Come explore how humor may serve to both challenge our faith and enhance faith practice. Some humor is subtle, can it also be precarious? Even in the midst of danger possibly inherent in humor, in the end, it seeks to deepen faith should we allow it.

Over the three sessions, Father Tony will explore key stories that he believes are intended to be humorous. Together we will find the laughter (and danger?) in the stories of Balaam and his donkey, Abraham and Sarah and some of the encounters between Jesus and his “would be” disciples.

SESSION ONE // JUNE 13

The Day of the Donkey: A Prophet, a King, and a Donkey go into a bar..”

How do we know something is funny? Can humor ever be “innocent”? (Numbers 22-24)

SESSION TWO // JUNE 16

Surprise? Surprise! Abraham and Sarah

Improvising when “Mazel-Moments” come our way. (Gen 18)

SESSION THREE // JUNE 23

Is That a Parable or a Very Subtle Joke?

Humor as test and an invitation to faith and joy. (Various passage in the Gospels)
